Parental Disclaimer

I will ensure my child attends the session with safe equipment and adequate clothing. I will ensure that, to the best of my knowledge, the bike that my child brings is roadworthy and safe and suitable for my child.

If in the event that my child is taken ill or has an accident whilst at a coached session or event, I hereby authorise for a representative from Tri Energy Kids to act in "loco parentis" by taking the necessary action until I have been notified.

I understand that triathlon can be a strenuous activity and though I'm aware the coaching team will always look at each child as an individual, I understand that there is an element of risk but deem my child fit and capable to take part. I will assess my child before each session to ensure this remains the case. If my child is unable to attend I will inform the coaching team.

I confirm that I wish my child to take part in the Tri Energy Kids activities and that I have read, understood, will encourage and signed the club code of conduct for Junior activities and Parent and Spectator Code of Conduct

I agree for photographs to be taken of my child and used for club publicity. YES/NO

Codes of Conduct

Tri Energy Kids is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members and associates. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators, children and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, everyone is encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with Samantha Anderson.

As associated with Tri Energy Kids you are expected to abide by the following code of conducts:

For Tri Energy Kids Club Coaches/Volunteers

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarized below. All club officials and volunteers must:

- Consider the wellbeing and safety of participants before the development of performance.
- Develop an appropriate working relationship with participants, based on mutual trust and respect.
- Make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
- Promote the positive aspects of the sport (eg fair play).
- Display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- Where possible and applicable follow the guidelines laid down by British Triathlon.
- Never exert undue influence over participants to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibited substances.
- Encourage participants to value their performances and not just results.
- Encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.

Code of Conduct for Junior Participants

- All junior participants must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- All junior participants must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- All junior participants should keep to agreed timings for training and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- All junior participants must wear suitable kit – swim costume/ trunks, a roadworthy bike and helmet and suitable trainers for running– for training sessions, as agreed with the coaches.

I have read and understood the above code of conduct for junior participants and hereby consent to abide by it:

Code of Conduct for Parents/Carers

The British Triathlon 'Code of Conduct for parents' summarizes the essence of good ethical conduct and practice within Triathlon. This applies not only to parents, but also to guardians, carer's, families and spectators alike.

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person, within the context of the Triathlon.
- Treat everyone equally and sensitively, and do not discriminate on the grounds of age, gender, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability.
- Encourage your child to learn the British Triathlon rules and compete within them.
- Publicly accept officials' judgements and abide by their instructions, providing they do not contradict the spirit of this code.
- Teach your child to respect the event officials.
- Help your child to recognise good performance, not just results to avoid undue disappointment.
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes.
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy their sport.
- Remember that the aim of Triathlon is for the children to have fun, improve and feel good.
- Set a good example by applauding all good performance, whether by your child or by another.
- Use correct and proper language at all times.
- Remember that young people learn best by example.
- Recognise the value and importance of volunteers, coaches, referee's and event organisers – it is their time and dedication that keeps the Sport alive.
- Young people are involved in organised sport for their enjoyment – not yours, so do not force your child to take part.

· Parents should pay fees for training or events promptly.
